

Openings Across the County

Marin has always had great shopping choices and recently a bevy of new stores has popped up. Brown Eyed Girl has made a comeback after last year's floods with its newest location at Town Center Corte Madera, where owner Danielle Bourhis and manager Lisa McNichol hosted a festive opening. In Larkspur, Marinites packed home fittings store Lunaria, located in the Jessica Hall and Associates design firm space on Magnolia Avenue. In San Rafael, Amy Frances Ferber and Eric Gellerman of The Wooden Duck held a celebration for the opening of their second location, which carries recycled wood furniture and imports. In San Anselmo, new boutique Kismet served sushi and champagne at a party to show off the shop's stylish fashions, including apparel by Robert Rodriguez and Ella Moss. In Novato, local Kimberly Wesch recently opened her first boutique, Betty Ann, with designs by Theory and Trina Turk.

Barbara Dryden,
Monica Wellington

KISMET

Stefan and Erica Cisneros